

Mentor Course Disclaimer

Dr Giam and those involved in the delivery of the Mentor OSCE Course are regularly involved in end of year assessments and final year OSCE's at several medical schools.

For this reason all attendees are required to abide by a code of conduct defined by the terms and conditions below.

By attending this course and in the event that you are assessed by Dr Giam or those associated with the Mentor OSCE Course you will agree to:

1. Not consider your attendance on the course to either favour or prejudice the examiner's assessment.
2. Be examined without bias independent of your attendance and performance on the course.
3. Refrain from personally acknowledging Dr Giam and those involved on the course during the exam assessment.
4. Refrain from discussing your attendance on the course and associated course material with any third party who may be involved in your assessment.
5. Use the course material for personal revision only.
6. Refrain from distributing the course material to any third party.

Please sign below and return to Dr Giam's administrator when you attend the course.

I agree to the above terms and conditions.
